

RADOMIR DJORDJEVIĆ (1940 – 2022)

The present contribution concerns the activity of Prof. Radomir Djordjević (Belgrade University, Faculty of Physics) who recently passed away. He was especially active in the field of contribution of Serbian scientists to world science, including astronomy as well. The meetings of Series “Astronomy Development among Serbs” were unimaginable without his presence. He was a member of the Scientific Organising Committee.

Key words: Radomir Djordjević, History and Philosophy of Science, Contribution of Serbian Scientists
