

RUDJER BOŠKOVIĆ AND THE BEGINNINGS OF THE „THEORY OF EVERYTHING”

MILAN M. ĆIRKOVIĆ and EDI BON

Astronomical Observatory, Volgina 7, 11160 Belgrade-74, Yugoslavia

Abstract. The pioneering attempt of Rudjer Bošković to lay down the first „Theory of everything” on the principles of Newtonian mechanics i.e. the universal dynamics of material fields, is considered.