

REPARATION CONTRACTS OF MILAN NEDELJKOVIĆ

Concluding the reparation contracts with the German companies for the delivery of instruments and other accessories, Milan Nedeljkovic did an epochal thing for Observatory in Belgrade, namely for the astronomical and meteorological science, and some related sciences: seismology, geodesy, the science of geomagnetism... This paper is a detailed review of all contracts of Milan Nedeljkovic, starting from the origin of the idea to obtain the scientific instruments in this way, its realization and method of implementation, the type, number and value of purchased instruments, various problems that have followed, and other institutions and individuals who significantly helped in its final realization.