

ON A PROPOSAL FOR COLLABORATION OF POET MIROSLAV ANTIĆ TO ASTRONOMICAL OBSERVATORY

Almost each letter of Miroslav Mika Antić can be a significant source of knowledge for the history of literature, but for this one, published and analyzed in this work, this can be said with lot of right. On the basis of several sentences written there, we learn more things: what is the purpose to re-start the journal for children Neven, what is for "childrens of all ages," one of the most attractive secrets, and whom Mika, as the Editor-in Chief, consider as the best person to "give to young people as much as possible answers about the infinity that surrounds us"; we will find out and what was the attitude of the Observatory to his proposal, and its response to this letter.
