

MUZENS ON THE ASTRONOMICAL OBSERVATORY IN BELGRADE

In late thirties of the twentieth century, Astronomical Observatory obtained a considerable human and intellectual improvement: a married couple - Muzens, Peter, PhD in Mathematics and Nina, a bachelor in philology, Russian immigrants. Their biographies, life and education in the new home, Kingdom of Serbs, Croates and Slovenes, and their work at the Astronomical Observatory, in less than four years in the eve of World War II, is the subject of this work.